Sight Seeing

Thimphu, one of the socially should see puts in Bhutan, is enchanting capital city settled in the Himalayas with the wonderful sights of the Chuu River coursing through it. Thimphu has held its way of life and old world appeal as present day advancement is intently checked and new structures can be manufactured uniquely in Bhutanese style and up to a specific tallness.

Great Buddha Dordenma is a gigantic Shakyamuni Buddha statue in the mountains of Bhutan celebrating the 60th anniversary of fourth king Jigme Singye Wangchuck. The statue houses over one hundred thousand smaller Buddha statues, each of which, like the Great Buddha Dordenma itself, are made of bronze and gilded in gold.

Paro Taktsang, is a sacred Vajrayana Himalayan Buddhist site located in the cliffside of the upper Paro valley in Bhutan.

The Punakha Dzong, also known as Pungthang Dewa chenbi Phodrang (meaning "the palace of great happiness or bliss"), is the administrative centre of Punakha District in Punakha, Bhutan. Constructed by Ngawang Namgyal, 1st Zhabdrung Rinpoche, in 1637–38, it is the second oldest and second-largest dzong in Bhutan and one of its most majestic structures.

Ludrong Memorial Garden – Ludrong or Settlement of Nagas, the Memorial Garden stands between the 15th century Tashichho Dzong and the Parliament house with the Wangchu River flowing between the two monuments. The garden is enrich with 560 varieties of trees, 362 scrub species, 385 bush species, 1724 flower species and 75 fruit bearing trees.
